

Profile: Steve Isaacs Raptor Ridge Ranch

Steve Isaacs has been involved with Hunting since growing up in the outer western suburbs of Sydney through the 1960's.

Steve's first outfitting business was at the age of 11 where he trapped rabbits as a (Rabbito) and sold the underground mutton for 2/6pc a pair to the local suburbs that surrounded the orchards and small farms.

Passionate about hunting Steve spent his teens and 20's teaching himself the craft of hunting small to medium game and offering his support to local Hunting Clubs serving as Sec and President of prominent Hunting and Deerstalking clubs in NSW. Presently member Adventure and Safari Industries Association NSW, Life Member NSW Deerstalkers Ass, Life Member SCI, Member SSAA and Member SFP.

Published though out the 70's and 80's in Outdoors magazines Steve moved on to hunt and fish overseas, NZ, Canada, the US, Africa and Asia. With a passion for Game Management receiving an award from the Shooting Sports for his work with the Non Indigenous Animal Act .

An avid photographer Steve has hunted, fished and photographed animals from all over the world.

Steve is also a Game Council R licence instructor, has a Guiding license through the Game Council NSW, Firearm Safety Awareness officer/instructor, has completed his Game Management Course from Uni of Queensland, operates a Hunting Consulting Business and is a Licensed Safari Operator.

With his wife Judy, Son Mark and family, Steve still lives in NSW Australia venturing to most areas in Australia and around the world hunting and guiding.

Steve entertains and guides customers on Raptor Ridge Ranch offering personal service and a wealth of hunting and fishing knowledge for first time fishers and hunters for hunting anywhere in the world.